

Penta training

Getting the best, from the best

In addition to our very popular School Inspector training course, we now offer four new courses, specifically designed for British schools overseas. All focus on impact.

Self-evaluation, development planning and the monitoring of school improvement 2½ day course

Covers the key knowledge, understanding and skills required to provide, promote and ensure high quality self-evaluation and development planning, and firmly embed processes for monitoring school improvement.

We will cover many related topics: identifying priorities, seeking evidence, creating action plans, making judgements, the psychology of change, change management, working with Ministry requirements, being a line-manager and being line-managed

British education for non British teachers 1 day course

Promotes deeper understanding of education in the UK

Aimed at teachers and administrators

High quality Arabic language teaching in British overseas schools 2½ day course 3 levels
Taught in English and Arabic
The course will cover the key knowledge, understanding and skills required to provide high quality Arabic language teaching in British overseas schools, including child development, preparation for teaching, adhering to the Ministry requirements, the English national curriculum for modern foreign languages, the importance of self-reflection and classroom techniques.

Child protection, mental health and student welfare 2½ day course

Three certificates included in the course – NSPCC, FAA and Penta.

An ambitious course, participants cover the key knowledge, understanding and skills required to provide and ensure high quality child protection, mental health and student welfare courses.

At the end of the 2½ days, you will receive three certificates: a child protection certificate from NSPCC, a Mental Health First Aid certificate which is FAA/OfQual accredited and a Penta international certificate which covers the full training.

To know more, contact Mark, Sue, Colin, John, Gerry or Sheila on training@penta.co.uk or call on +971502632514